Detailed description: This image shows six systems of handwritten musical notation, labeled E through K. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps and flats). Some notes are beamed together. The systems are arranged vertically, with each system starting with a letter label (E, F, G, H, I, J, K) positioned above the first staff of that system. The handwriting is in black ink on a white background.

6/1

Handwritten musical notation for the first system. It consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). The treble staff contains notes with various accidentals (flats, naturals, sharps) and some slurs. The bass staff contains notes, some with accidentals. A large 'L' is written above the treble staff on the right side.

Handwritten musical notation for the second system. It consists of two staves. The treble staff has notes with accidentals and some slurs. The bass staff has notes with accidentals. A 'p.' (piano) dynamic marking is present above the treble staff.

Handwritten musical notation for the third system, starting with a large 'M' on the left. It consists of two staves. The treble staff has notes with accidentals and slurs. The bass staff has notes with accidentals and a 'v' (accent) marking above the first note.

Handwritten musical notation for the fourth system. It consists of two staves. The treble staff has notes with accidentals and slurs. The bass staff has notes with accidentals.

Handwritten musical notation for the fifth system. It consists of two staves. The treble staff has notes with accidentals and slurs. The bass staff has notes with accidentals. A vertical line is drawn at the end of the system, with the number '16' written vertically next to it. Below the line, the text 'W. Rahn' is written.

Two sets of empty musical staves at the bottom of the page, each consisting of a treble and bass clef staff.
